

Dietrich Späte

Beverger Damm 15, 48369 Saerbeck, Germany

Professional Biography

- 1975 – 1981 Sports Studies at Ruhr University Bochum, Germany
- 1982 – 2014 Editor and Publishing Director of Philippka Sportverlag, Rektoratsweg 36, 48159 Münster
- Published various standard references, books, brochures and handball-related specialist articles, new digital media
- 1984 – 2014 Editor of the coaching magazine handballtraining

Sports Biography

- 1967 – 1980 Handball player with various clubs (up to second division)
- 1975 – 1980 Selection coach in the German Ruhr district, and responsible for coaching education
- 1980 – 1990 Regional coach with the Handball Association of Westphalia, Germany
- Trained and coached the selection teams (talent promotion)
 - Responsible for coaching education
- 1989 Assistant coach of the DHB's Men's Junior National Team (participation in 1989 Junior World Championship in Spain)
- 1989 – 1992 Assistant coach of the DHB's Men's National Team (participation in 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona)
- 1991 – 2000 Coaching instructor of the German Handball Association (DHB), responsible for DHB coaching education and general training design
- 1994 – 1998 Member of the Coaching Education Committee of the German Olympic Sports Confederation (DOSB)
- 1992 – 2015 Member of the IHF Commission of Coaching and Methods (CCM)
- 2015 – 2017 Caretaker Chairman of the IHF Commission of Coaching and Methods (CCM)
- 2016 – present Member of the IHF Competition Management
- 2017 – present Chairman of the IHF Commission of Coaching and Methods (CCM)